

REMARKS

In the specification

Near the end of paragraph 31, the space between the letter “a” and “t” has been deleted so that they come together to form the word “at”.

Claims 1-26 and new claims 27-29

Claims 1 through 26 stand rejected as being anticipated or obvious. In particular, independent claims 1 and 19 stand rejected as anticipated by Coleburn, and independent claim 22 stands rejected as being obvious over Coleburn.

In view of the above-recited amendments, however, Applicant respectfully submits that all of claims 1-29 are in condition for allowance. Support for the added language “household or bathroom” is found in paragraph 69 of Applicant’s specification. Support for the language, “wherein the detachable mirror is operably mounted onto the face of, and adjustably angled by a user with respect to, the second mirror” and its variations, in claims 27-29 is found in the first sentence of paragraph 48 and the second sentence of paragraph 60.

For all of the forgoing reasons, the Applicant respectfully requests that all of claims 1-29 be allowed.

Respectfully submitted,

Date September 20, 2005
